ORIENTAL JEWS ARE ADVISED TO BE AMERICANS

Federation of Societies Speaking Different Languages
Advocates Citizenship

[By Latest Mail]
NEW YORK.—The second annual meeting of the Federation of Oriental Jews was held Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of public school 91, at Forsyth and Stanton streets.

The federation includes 28 societies, with two or three thousand members, and of the Hebrews whom it represents there are 10,000 to 15,000 in New York. In general, they are those at present or formerly under Turkish rule, who for the most part employ the Sephardic rather than the Ashkenazic ritual, and who do not speak Yiddish. Ladino, the fifteenth century Spanish, with some admixture of other words, is spoken by many of them, while others use Arabic and Greek.

The variety of languages is said to be the chief obstacle to the progress of these Jews, who come to America unable to communicate even with their Hebrew brethren; and the activity of the federation is directed toward social and economic rather than religious ends.

Joseph Gedalecia, president of the federation, read the report of the organization's activities during the past year. Three Talmud Torahs are now in operation for religious training. For the children of oriental Jews the federation advocates study in the public schools, leading to Americanization; but a night class for adults has been established, with the aid of the Educational Alliance, where English is taught to recent immigrants. A social center was recommended.

JOSEPH B. ANDERSON'S ESTATE NOW IN COURT

[By Latest Mail]
OAKLAND.—Mrs. Charlotte Anderson petitioned the superior court for letters of administration to the estate of her husband, Joseph B. Anderson, the Fruitvale horseman, who died at the Acropolis Sanatorium two weeks ago before he could be remarried to the woman who is now his widow. The estate is valued at $40,000. The heirs are the widow, her daughter, Mercedes California Anderson, and two children by Anderson's first wife.

Anderson fatally injured when a horse fell on him, desired to be remarried to his wife of seven years because of the fear, it is alleged, that probate complications might arise out of the fact that his marriage to his present wife took place a few days before a final decree was granted from a former wife.

Deputy County Clerk Paul Wuthe hastened to the bedside with a marriage license and Justice of the Peace Aaron Turner was called in. Anderson did not regain consciousness, and died with his wife and Judge Turner waiting at the bedside.

It is not known whether the failure of the remarriage plan will cause legal complications in the settlement of the estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Miss Margaret Hopper of Honolulu arrived here yesterday from Europe. She is en route to her home in Hawaii.

DEED, WRITTEN 7500 YEARS AGO, IS DISCOVERED

[By Latest Mail]
PHILADELPHIA.—Although it was thought that the discovery of the Nippur tablets giving the oldest extant version of the creation, flood and fall of man, produced the oldest document in existence in which human writing was shown, it develops that this is not the fact.

There are four tablets which are deemed to be the oldest human writing in existence, and one of them is at the Pennsylvania University Museum. It is only about three inches square and is imperfect and is assigned with some probability to about 7500 years ago, although it is impossible to make a close estimate.

The writing is in ideograph characters, the picture writing of all primitive peoples, and with great labor was translated by Professor Barton of Bryn Mawr College. These ideographs, dealing with the clearing up of a land estate, and the exact purpose of it is not wholly clear, although it tells of killing locusts and restoring the property. It may have served the purpose of a deed.

It is known that in this irrigated land of plenty, where wheat was said to have reproduced two hundredfold, any failure of the crop was laid to demonology and it was important to remove the spell of witchcraft. Apparently the spell had been lifted from this piece of land.

No other human writing has been found older than the four specimens mentioned. Present records back of these consist of stone implements which were fashioned with great skill.

Some of Jersey City's free park concerts this summer will be conducted by Miss Margaret Meehan, a 19-year-old girl, who will receive $100 for each concert.

If white netting be put on the outside of a window screen and black on the inside, the vision of a person behind the screen will not be obscured while persons outside cannot see into a room.

All records were broken in the United States naturalization court at Philadelphia, when 250 applicants for citizenship were passed and swore allegiance to this country.

NOAH, AND NOT ADAM, WAS MAN WHO SINNED, SAYS ANCIENT TABLET

[By Latest Mail]
PHILADELPHIA.—Reports cabled from London describing a new version of the flood and the fall of man deciphered from an ancient Sumerian tablet by Dr. Stephen Langdon, professor of Assyriology in Jesus college, Oxford, were confirmed by officials of the university of Pennsylvania museum.

The tablet is part of the collection unearthed by the university expedition to Nippur.

The fragment translated by Dr. Langdon tells of the flood and uses the Sumerian equivalent for Nuh, or Noah, as the man who saved man from destruction.

It differs from the biblical account of creation in reciting that it was Noah who sinned by eating of the tree of knowledge and thus brought about his fall. From this time on, according to this account, Noah had to work, and man's days were shortened to their present length. Instead of a serpent, it was Enki, the water god, who tempted him.

On comparing the tablet which Dr. Langdon has just translated with a similar fragment translated by Dr. Proebel, the university authorities found that the two tablets evidently had been written by the same person about 2500 B. C., or 400 years before the time of Abraham.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Beautify your Hair! Make it soft, fluffy and luxuriant—Try the moist cloth.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—advertisement.

315,000,000 ARE LIVING IN INDIA

[By Latest Mail]
LONDON.—At a cost of only £135,000, and by means of a staff numbering about two million persons, a general census of India was taken on the night of March 10, 1911, the results of which are embodied in a large volume issued by the India office as a blue book.

The difficulties of taking a census of a population numbering about 300,000,000, over an area of 1,803,657 square miles, were enormous. They were especially great owing, as the report puts it, "to the long lines of railway, the big rivers on which boats travel some times for days without coming to the bank, the forests to which woodcutters resort, often weeks at a time, and the numerous sacred thousands of pilgrims." People had to be enumerated wherever they were caught. In the case of railways, for instance, all persons traveling by rail who took tickets after 7 p. m. on the night of the census were enumerated either on the platforms or in the trains. The latter were all stopped at 6 p. m. on the following morning in order to include any travelers who up till then had escaped notice.

The summary tables show that the total population of India (including the native states) on the night mentioned was 315,156,396, (as against 294,361,056 ten years previously), of whom 217,586,392 were Hindus, 66,647,299 were Moslems, 10,721,453 were Buddhists, and 3,876,203 were Christians. The illiterate numbered only 18,539,578 persons, and agriculture claimed the labor of 224,695,909.

The disease to which caisson workers are subject, according to a French authority, are due to the fact that, when air is compressed hydraulically, it loses nearly one fifth of its oxygen.

Introducing herself as the "Queen of the Unemployed," an attractive woman about 28 years old, applied to the city poor board at Scranton, Pa., and asked for aid, saying she was out of work.

WIFE'S CONFESSION REVEALS CHIVALRY OF BRITISH OFFICER

[By Latest Mail]
LONDON, Eng.—A tragic story of splendid chivalry, of a British army officer's determination to undergo penal servitude rather than defend himself at his wife's expense, although she was proved guilty, is told in a document which has just been sent to all members of parliament by Sir Herbert Raphael, M. P., who is trying to secure a rehearing of the case in order to vindicate the officer's honor.

It is the story of Lieut. Cecil Aylmer Cameron, of the Royal Artillery, and his wife, who were both convicted in 1911 of fraudulently claiming £6,500 insurance on a pearl necklace which Mrs. Cameron said had been stolen from her, but which she never even possessed.

Lieut. Cameron, whose father won the V. C. in the Indian mutiny, and whose grandfather fought in the Guards at Waterloo, refused to go into the witness box at the trial to prove his non-complicity in the fraud for fear of making his wife's case worse. The result was that both were sentenced to three years' penal servitude. The husband served two years of his sentence, but the wife was released after a few weeks owing to a dangerous illness.

Mrs. Cameron, fearing that she was about to die, made a complete confession exonerating her husband. She showed that all along she had duped him, and that up to the very last she had feared to confess her deception lest she should lose his love.

HEADACHY, COSTIVE, BILIOUS—"CASCARETS"

Sick Headache, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach, mean Liver and Bowels are clogged—Cheer up!

Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and food breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.—advertisement.

RING LOST 40 YEARS IS FOUND.

[By Latest Mail]
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Mrs. Rosa Kenney Winston of Windsor, N. C., has received from Secretary Daniels a ring her father lost on the historic ship Constellation at the close of the civil war. Mrs. Winston's father, the late Dr. Kenney, one time ship surgeon, insisted the ring should be recovered when the ship was overhauled.

Mrs. Winston wrote Secretary Daniels when she learned that the Constellation was undergoing repairs at the Norfolk navy yard to fit her for exhibition at the star spangled banner anniversary in Baltimore. The ring was found under the iron covering plates of the anchor bolts on the gun deck forward, where it had reposed for more than 40 years.

H. W. Weaver, Jr., son of a millionaire, Elizabeth, Pa., distiller, was given employment as an ordinary freight brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad recently. He tried to keep his identity secret, but was recognized by former residents of his home town.
